Message from the Chairman.

Well 2015 wasn't too brilliant at times was it? We started off in drought conditions with each month setting record lows in rainfall until we reached July and then the rains came! Fortunately, the weather did not adversely affect us and it was a good year for Eastcote Horticultural Society. We had three excellent shows, a well-attended Quiz Evening, two fascinating trips, one to Waddesdon Manor, one to Wisley and then rounded the year off with our Annual Dinner which was held at a new venue in Eastcote.

Also during the year we again won the Affiliated Societies Cup at the October RHS show for a collection of 9 dishes of apples and pears.

Once again I would like to thank all of our volunteer Committee members who enable our Society to offer so much and would particularly like to thank Catherine Dann for being such an outstanding President. We are so lucky to have her as our figurehead.

As ever I want to encourage members to utilise the Trading Hut as often as they can thus ensuring its continuing success into the future. Please be aware that many of the items we have on sale are as competitive in terms of price as you will find in retail outlets such as Homebase or B&Q. Finally and perhaps, more importantly, you will receive the personal attention from those serving in the Hut that you are unlikely to get anywhere else nowadays.

I look forward to meeting you during the year.

Gerry Edwards. Chairman - Eastcote Horticultural Society.

Show Report.

We had the usual three shows across the Spring, Summer and Autumn. Our exhibitors do a great job in finding entries, even when the weather has been rather challenging. As well as the horticulture and flower arranging displays we have other classes which make the shows "something for everyone". I am always impressed by the range of items displayed. I like to see the young people in our society enter their craft work and add colour to the show benches in a different way. The photography classes are very popular and we are fortunate to have the ongoing support of the Field End Photographic Society who judge all our entries so diligently at each show.

May I take this opportunity to thank all the volunteers who help run the shows. There are people in the hall from 8 am on show day and there are jobs to do throughout the day, finishing with the tidying away of the exhibits and show benches. If anyone would like to be involved with helping out on show days please let me know. Most importantly, a big thank you to everyone who takes part in the shows. Without you entering there wouldn't be a show. Please keep the entries flowing through 2016. I feel it will be another year when the weather will be the gardener's greatest challenge.

Social Secretary's Corner.

There were a number of social activities during 2015. We started with a quiz in April. Our quizmaster Tony, supported by his wife Rosemary, ran an entertaining evening. The light buffet provided by our friend Margaret Porter was very well received and seemed to feed our brains for the second half of the evening.

In 2015 we had two coach trips which were well supported by our members. The first was to RHS Wisley Gardens on 30 May.

We enjoyed fine weather, with the azaleas and rhododendrons showing well. In addition to seeing the gardens full of colour there was a display of birds of prey with flying demonstrations throughout the day. Exploring the gardens was made more interesting by the art and sculpture exhibits, which were fascinating. The art was on sale but I didn't hear of any of our members being tempted.

WADDES DON MANOR. Our second coach trip was rather different in that we didn't make our traditional visit to a garden. Following members' feedback we booked a visit for 21st November to see the Christmas celebrations at Waddesdon Manor. The artist, Bruce Munro, had set the outside of the Manor alight with a music and light show which ran for a few minutes every hour and every half hour, so there were plenty of opportunities to enjoy it. Inside the house the theme was Lights and Legends which focused on stories from around the globe. These were alongside the traditional Christmas decorations, with beautiful trees and the dining table set for a feast. However, as if this wasn't enough, there was a Christmas market with stalls set up around the outside of the Manor. Quality independent traders offered a wide range of gifts and food. Some made perfect presents and some were consumed on the spot. The decorations in the Manor and the light show across its exterior change every year and I suspect there may be a call from our members to make another visit in the lead up to Christmas this year.

ANNUAL DINNER. The annual dinner was held on 12th November and we enjoyed our meal at the Bosphorus Restaurant in Eastcote. Although the restaurant has a different name, it is still owned and managed by the same Turkish gentleman who ran the restaurant when it was called the Meze Bar and Restaurant. The amount of chatter and laughter emanating from our long table was a good indication of the success of the evening.

The RHS - The Affiliated Societies' Challenge Cup - 2015.

2015 was a bumper year for apples and maybe the best for 30 years. Unfortunately, though, pears were not so good as the weather was quite their during their flowering period and few pollinating insects were flying. This meant it was quite a challenge trying to find good pears for any show this year let alone for the RHS London Harvest Show! Fortunately, we were able to find enough to stage and we kept our fingers crossed that they didn't ripen before judging.

Our entry looked very good once it had been staged at the RHS New Hall at Westminster. This time we had two competitors from Devon and Nottingham. In quality terms our exhibit was considerably better and justifiably earned first prize and the Affiliated Societies Challenge Cup.

The dishes of fruit exhibited in this entry were:

DESSERT APPLES:

Cox's Orange Pippin
Golden Delicious
Royal Gala
Spartan

COOKING APPLES:

Charles Ross
Bramley's Seedling
Howgate Wonder

DESSERT PEARS:

Conference
Doyenne du Comice

I saw quite a few EHS members at the show, but if you didn't make it, may I encourage you to do so in 2016. It is being held on Tuesday 4th and Wednesday 5th October 2016 in the Lindley Hall at RHS Westminster.
