Dear Member,

EHS 70th ANNIVERSARY EVENT

SATURDAY 10TH APRIL at 10.30am

This is the first of our Anniversary Events

The Eastcote Horticultural Society is joining with the Eastcote Conservation Panel to plant native English bluebells.

The wooded area leading from Eastcote House Gardens to the River Pinn is drab and dreary, please come and help plant bluebells, so as to create Eastcote's own Bluebell Wood. This is an event all the family can join in. Work as hard or as relaxed as you choose. We have 1,500 bluebells to plant so every little helps.

Meet in the car park at Eastcote House Gardens.
Tools and refreshments provided, wear wellies and old clothes.

Would be helpful to know the number of volunteers we have in advance so please drop me an email to eastcotehorticultural@yahoo.co.uk.

Look forward to seeing you there.

Yours sincerely

Sue Alexander
